BAD BUTTER FOR LUNATICS

DIGGING UP SOME OF WARDEN MON

ROE'S FAULTS. Me Threatens to Carry the War Inte Africa Even to the Extent of Impugning the Moral Character of the Asylum Dectors.

The special car on the Morris and Essex road that carried the Legislative Committee to the NewJersey Lunatic Asylum in Morris Plains yesterday morning, to continue their investigan of the management of the institution, was well filled. Besides Senators Griggs, Thompson, and Bogert, and Assemblymen Peck, Jones, Pitney, and Meeker, it contained George L. Halsey, William S. Banta, and others of the Board of Management of the asylum, Lawyer Corbin, who is managing the attack of the physicians on the Warden, a delegation of cholders from Hunterdon county and another from Merris county, and a lot of witnesses and reporters. The wide shirt front of Assemblyman Frank McDermitt, with its cluster nds, was all that was missing of the ogislative array. They got there later.

The attack began with the testimony of John T. Lines. He was storekeeper for Warden M. B. Monroe for twenty months previous to Janury. 1887. He told a hard story against the Warden, but he was so heavily charged that then he recoiled under the cross-examination. he did more damage to the doctor's side than he had done to the Warden's. He said that while he was storekeeper he frequently served out wormy oatmeal and white beans. At times the eggs were so bad that they could not be served to patients, and that the butter was had, and he had known meat to be kept in the warden's kitchen until it was unfit to eat, and then served to the patients. He had known sixty quarts of milk at a time, he said, to be sent to the Warden's kitchen and skimmed there, after which it was sent back to be used sent to the variable was sent back to be used for the patients.

When I spoke to Warden Monroe about the butter," he said. "he told me to give the best of it to the wards where the private patients were and serve the rost to the county patients. Of the eggs he said, 'Let the baker use them.'"

Mr. Monroe, he said, had large quantities of goods invoiced to the asylum, which were for nis own use. In the month of December, 1886, he said he kept account of these. In that month alone he said these items were received for Mr. Monroe's private use:

From Geiger & Smith of Merristown, 100 cigars, $0.25; Conkiln & Chivis, I dozen lace collars, $1: 24 yards plush, $6.25; I face red mat, £2.55; 15 yards plush, $2.60; 7 yards sik velvet, £28; I doz, cord, $5 cents; 7 yards plush, $15.75; 4 yards silk plush, $8.80; I robe for sleigh, $6.

reds plish, $15.75; 4 yards slik plosh, $8.60; I robe for listip. $6.

The seven yards of slik velvet he said was used to cover a chair for Mrs. Monroe's mother, and the seven yards of plush for rugs for Mr. Monroe's sleighs. From Thurber, Whyland & Co.'s 1 dozen wild cherry and tar, $1.75; 200 rigars, $20, 2 dozen Guinness's stout, $3.60. The witness complained to Monroe he said, because certain dealers were not sending the amount of goods to the saylum that their involces called for. One bill of the Newark Beef Company was 1.495 pounds short. The witness marked it in pencil and reported it. Rub out the marks," the Warden said, and let it be paid." The fish were always short in weight. One barrel from John Elsie he says he found 140 pounds short. Warden Monroe discharged him, he says, because he talked too much. The Warden kept full of liquor all the time.

"He carried the keys of the liquor room," said Lines, "and visited it about six times a day. Every time he came out he was wiping his mouth."

day. Every time he came out he was wiping his mouth."

There was a suggestion in the cross-examination that Mr. Lines himself indulged too freely in the flowing bowl. He said it was not true, and also that he had never been discharged from a place for drunks oness.

Did you not get drunk one night with a driver from Morristown and get tipped over in a sleigh on the way home?"

The driver was drunk, he answered, "and I stayed by him four hours to save his life."
The curious feature of this story is that when Lines got to the asylum, so Warden Monroe says, he had on the driver's gloves, and the poor driver got his hands frozen and afterward had seven fingers amputated.

Mr. H. A. Freeman, agent for Pottier & Stymus in Morrisville, and Chairman of the Building Committee of the School Board, testified that Lines applied for the place of janitor of a school there. He investigated his record, and was told by Mr. Thatcher, for whom Lines had worked, that he had discharged the latter for drunkenness.

Dr. C. P. Wertenbaker, who had been second was told by Mr. Thatcher, for whom Lines had worked, that he had discharged the latter for drunkenness.

Dr. C. P. Wertenbaker, who had been second assistant physician from May, 1885, to October, 1887, read to the committee an essay against the dual system of government in the asylum. Under this system the Warden has charge of all matters relating to the food, supplies, and building, and the Medical Director is in charge of the patients. There was a clash of authority between the two, he said, which was aggravated by the Warden. The food was poorly prepared and badly served, and no reliance could be placed by the doctors upon having extra food served to patients when it was ordered. The Warden, he said, interfered with the patients moving them from one ward to another when he wanted to have varnishing or other work done, without consulting the physicians, and even moving the medical apparatus out of the doctors' rooms into the hallways for similar reasons.

The Freeholders' committees came to complain about the profits charged upon supplies of clothing which the Warden furnishes to the county patients, and which the counties have to pay for. Morris county also asked the committee to inquire what effect the troubles in the asylum may have upon the patients.

A lack of system was made evident by the Warden's own testimony. He said there was no rule by which he charged profits on the supplies, and no books in the place which would show the profit or loss in this department.

"How do you fix the advanced price," he was asked.

"We just add it," he answered.

"We just add it," he answered.

President Halsey said that since the last aitting of the committee he and Dr. James S. Green had investigated several of the departments. The butcher had been in the habit of cutting his meat the night before it was to be used, and piling it in tubs. He had been discharged. The reason that clothing and bedding which was sent to the laundry was not returned to the wards from which it came, was because much of it was unmarked, and no account was kept of where it came from. He had instituted a system of lists and marks which he thought would remedy this. All of these matters, he said, might have been attended to long ago if the Modical Department had spoken about them.

"When Dr. Booth made his charges out to We just add it," he answered.

long ago if the Medicai Department had spoken about them.

"When Dr. Booth made his charges against Warden Monroe in 1886," he said, "the committee who investigated them thought they had arranged everything in a satisfactory manner. They also authorized me to take any further action that might be needed. I notified Dr. Booth and also Mr. Monroe of this, but I have insver had a complaint from either of them. The Beard did not know of any trouble until this investigation was begun.

It is rumored that now that the fight is on. Warden Monroe will carry the war into Africa. He will, it is said, produce witnesses whose testimony will impeach both the professional treatment of the patients by the medical staff and also the moral character of some of the doctors. The Board of Managers are evidently on the side of the Warden and there are hints that the whole medical staff will have to go. The investigation will be continued on Thursday at 9:30 A. M.

Evidently Didn't Believe the Policeman. Edward Roberts, colored, was tried in the General Sessions yesterday for assaulting Polic James Fitzgibbons Fitzgibbons testified that he. two other policemen, were trying to stop a row when berts struck him in the face and kicked him.

Roberts went on the witness stand wearing blood-stained clothes. He said that Fitzgibbons had crossed the street to him, called him a cook, and clubbed him the street to him called him a coon and cluosed him immerically without provession.

Judge Cowing (to the jury)—I believe in sustaining the pelice to the top notch when no duty, but the fact they come here and magnify cases of assault, and any one would think from the stories they aometimes tell they had had to fight half the city of New York. I do not say that is the case in this affair. If the jury believe the officer then Koberts must be convicted.

The jury acquitted Roberts.

Jersey City's Choked Sewers Cause Malaria. The sewers in Jersey City have not been cleared for two months on account of the failure of the Board of Works to organize and award a contract for the work, and in consequence a good many of choked with mud and sewage matter, and refuse t choked with mud and sewage matter, and refuse to carry off the rain that has fallen. On a good many of the streets the water covers the pavements, and cannot be drained off. Celtars in many parts of the city are fooded. A physician told a los reporter yesterday that maisria and similar diseases had increased rapidly during the week and unless something were done to get rid of the water and sewage before it stagnates there might be an epidemic. The unproved streets are the worst, someof them being covered with six inches of water on a bed of mud, and it is utterly impossible to pass through them

The New Democratic Quarantine Commis-cioners Take Possession.

The two new Quarantine Commissioners, Charles F. Allen and George W. Anderson, took possession of the office at 71 Broadway yesterlay morning, and organized the new Commission without any trouble. Gov. Hill had so timed the stroke that both Thomas C. Platt and John A. Nichols were out of town. Secretary Edwin S. Mellen received the new Commissioners with open arms. It was the design of the Governor that no word of the appointment should get abroad until after the new Commissioners had taken their seats. It did get out, but too late to admit of any dilatory proceedings by the Republican incumbents.

Both the appointees received telegrams late on Monday afternoon from the Governor's private secretary requesting them to meet John W. Hogan at the Westminster Hotel at 8 o'clock. At the hour appointed they met Mr. Hogan. and with him Attorney-General Tabor, who had in his possession the signed and sealed commissions. Gen. Tabor said the Governor wished to have the new Commissioners sworn in at once, and Judge Morgan J. O'Brien swore them in wished to have the new Commissioners sworn in at once, and Judge Morgan J. O'Brien swore them in.

Early yesterday morning the new Commissioners filed their caths with the County Clerk, Mr. Anderson in Brooklyn and Mr. Allen in this city. Then they went alone and in some trepidation, to the office at 71 Broadway. Secretary Mellen was ready for them, having read in the newspapers of their appointment. At 11 % o'clock the two formed a meeting, elected Mr. Anderson President, and continued Secretary Mellen in office. Then they adjourned until Thursday.

Both of the new Commissioners are stanch Democrats. Mr. Anderson is a bridge trustee; is in the forwarding business, and is accounted wealthy. He has been President of the Veteran Firemen's Association since its organization, and led the firemen on their late trip to California. He has been for years President of the Democratic organization of the Twenty-first ward of Brooklyn. He served two terms as President of the Brooklyn Board of Supervisors. Mr. Allen has been a Tammany man sixteen years. He served throughout the war in the Twenty-second Regiment, and is now a member of James C. Rice Post, 29, G. A. E. For thirty years he had a place of trust in the Great Western Marine Insurance Company, Then he resigned and bought a seat in the Produce Exchange, He is a trustee and director of the American Institute, and is Chairman of the Twenty-first district, the strongest Republican district in the city. Mr. Allen has never held a public office, Gov. Hill nominated him for State Assessor, but the Senate shelved the nomination.

Commissioner Allen attended all the sessions

Stata Assessor, but the Senate shelved the nomination.
Commissioner Allen attended all the sessions of the State Convention yesterday and made a record on hand shaking.
"We didn't take any clubs with us to the Quarantine office," he said laughingly. "but we trembled a little. We rather expected to be fired down stairs.

Mr. Allen is appointed to fill the place of the late David W. Judd. Mr. Anderson may have to fight for his place. He takes Thomas C. Platt's place. After being ousled Platt appealed. His appeal came up on Monday before the General Term, and was postponed until September. Commissioner Nichols will return to town to-day.

AN ARMY OF WITNESSES.

A Fashionable Tailor's Son Arraigned for Swindling With Porged Checks.

John P. Lockwood, 38 years old and the on of Gershom Lockwood, the fashionable Fifth avenue tailor, was arraigned at Jofferson Market Court yesterday afternoon. He was arrested on Monday night at the Grand Central Station while purchasing a ticket for Rye. Nine complainants appeared in court, and eight charges of forcery and one complaint of largeny were preferred against him. Lucius H. Mattison, chief clerk in William

Moir's jewelry store at 373 Sixth avenue, testi-

Moir's jewelry store at 373 Sixth avenue, testified that Lockwood on April 26 pretended that he wanted to give some jewelry to his wife, and took a diamond ring valued at $120 and a pair of diamond earrings valued at $120 to show her. Lockwood failed to either return the jewelry or send the money. On this complaint Justice Duify held him for trial in $1,000 bail. Max S. Rohman of Michaelis & Rohman, haberdashers at 14 West Twenty-third street, preferred a charge of forgery against Lockwood. He swore that on Feb. 28 Lockwood bought two scarfs and one pair of gloves at $5,50, and gave in payment a check of $22 on the Chase National Bank, which purported to have been drawn by W. W. Wall in favor of John Gleason. Lockwood received the change in cash. The check was worthless.

Justice Duffy held Lockwood on this complaint also, and six more complainants appended their names to the affidavit. They were E. A. Yale of the Hotel Bartholdi, who was defrauded of $119.81 on Nov. 2, 1887, by a worthless check; George D. Carroll of Dempsey & Carroll, siationers, who had lost $12 on a forged check: H. L. Mathey of 1,097 Broadway, who lost $41 in the same way: Youmans, the hatter, who cashed a worthless check for $57,19; the Gorham Silverware Company, who lost $19.07 by one of Lockwood's checks. fied that Lockwood on April 26 pretended that

HE REGARDED HIM AS A SON. Judge Hilton's Pince in the Affection of A. T. Stewart.

All the counsel in the Stewart will case appeared before Judge O'Brien yesterday in the suit of Saran N. Smith against ex-Judge Hilton and others to set aside the transfers of property to him from Mrs. Stewart, and to remove him as executor of her will and that of her nusband. The case was adjourned with out argument until May 24, and the parties interested went over to the Surrogate's Court, where Mr. Choate resumed his cross-examination of Henry G. Hilton. The witness testified that he had obtained tion of Henry G. Hilton.

The witness testified that he had obtained possession of some of the Stewart property during Mrs. Stewart's life time, having bought it in the usual way for $1 consideration.

"That was the usual way in which you bought her property?" asked Mr. Choate.

"My father owned it at the time," he replied.

The witness said he had not realized enough out of the property, which consisted of saw mills, wollen mills and grist mills at Woodstock, Vl., to pay the taxes and insurances.

Mr. Hilton said he had loon in the habit of calling uson Mrs. Stewart daily, and frequently carried money to her from his father, and sometimes presents. He frequently saw Mrs. Stewart at breakfast.

On the redirect examination he testified that Mrs. Stewart read the newspapers every morning and paid particular attention to the theatrical criticisms. She had a box at Niblo's and went to the theatre and opera frequently. She was fond of seeing Lester Wallack act. He remembered, too, that she disapproved of the Vanderbilt will contest. She said she couldn't see why people wanted to contest wills. Mrs. Stewart told him shortly after she had transferred the dry goods business to his father that Prescott Hall Butler and George Lawrence Smith had been to see her and protested against her action. She said she was carrying out the wishes of her husband, who had frequently told her that if anything happened to him he wanted the Judge to have the business. She said her husband had always looked upon your father as his son," he said. "Did she say he also looked upon your father as his son," he said. "Did she say he also looked upon your father as his son," he said. "Did she say he also looked upon your said her husband looked upon your father as his son," he said. LATIMER E. JONES'S FARM.

A Great Estate Sold Under Foreclosure Procerdings for Only $27,500.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., May 15 .- The skyrocket career of the notorious Latimer E Jones n connection with the Orange County Stock Farm property, in the town of Warwick, this county, has ended at last. The property was sold last Saturday at Goshen by Referce D. W. Esmond, under foreclosure of first mortgage, in a suit against Jones as apparent owner, and against a number of secondary mortgage and judgment creditors, and was bid off by John R. Conkey, a wealthy Englishman, who, it is said, will take up his residence on the estate, The property comprises 850 acres of the finest Orange county farming lands, with an elegan mansion and suitable outbuildings, and with training and breeding stables, racing track. and other accessories to match-an estate improved at a cost to somebody of not less than $100,000—and which is now secured by Mr. Conkey on a bid of $27,750, which sum just about covers the amount of the mortgage of $25,000, with overdue interest and costs.

The property was originally a consolidation of several farms purchased by Collis P. Huntington, the railroad millionaire, in 1830, and improved and fitted up by him at great cost for a country seat. After keeping the estate for four years, Mr. Huntington sold it to a party named king, taking in security for part of the purchase money the mortgage just foreclosed. On Feb. 22, 1886, Latimer E. Jones, who had recently married a daughter of Lewis Colwell, a late wealthy lead and from merchant of New York, became the owner of the property, subject to the Huntington mortgage. Jones squandered thousands upon thousands of dollars in fitting up the estate for breeding and training purposes, and in stecking it with the finest imported and domestic strains of horses and horned eartie. The financial wreck that overtook him within a year and a half, and his arrest and imprisonment on charges of swindling Lawyer B. L. Luddington and others out of hundreds of thousands of dollars, stopped his work short. The sale of the property not only cuts off any claims that Jones might have, but also wipes out nearly $100,000 of second mortgage and judgment liens entered by Lawyer Luddington and other creditors of Jones against the property. $100,000—and which is now secured by Mr. Conkey on a bid of $27,750, which sum just

There's naught in language can so well express Successful effort like the word success. No boom in real estate on old Long Island,

In town or suburb, vale or lovely highland,

Has been more glorious in this modern day Than at Bath Beach Junction and at Rapelje— Both sold upon the monthly pay ment plan, So easy paid by woman and by man. Why live in tenement or homeless room When twenty dollars mouthly gets a home! Or even five or ten a month for lots In good location, eligible spots Both rank "Al" in quality, and pass, Each in its way, beyond all doubt, iirst-class. To Bath Basch Junction came the wise and steady, And eighteen hundred lots are sold already. Their homes were started sooner than expected. And eighty cosey dwellings are eracted, Now sheltering eighty families in life Afar from city's turmoil, din, and strife, Yet nearer City Hail, in time, 'tis reckoned, Then those in tenements in 42d Three hundred trains and fifty pass each way And stop at Bath Beach Junction every day BARGAINS IN CURTAINS To 30th Street Ferry or Bay Ridge, Or, if you like, by street car to the Bridge. Should you prefer in summer time to go In style and comfort, take the Taily ho, The new coach line to 39th Street Ferry; You'll find the trip agreeable and merry: But don't forget, if health and wealth you'd reap, To get a home while lots like these are cheap: But if you think that city lots will nay I offer you the FARM OF RAPELIE In East New York, the finest in the field, To furnish homes and future profits yield, Right in the city's 26th new ward. The lots are first from market farm and sward: First class in sight, lo ation, and respect, As near first hands as any can expect;

FURNITURE & CARPETS ON WEEKLY OR MONTHLY PAYMENTS.

Near schools and churches, stores, hotels, and shops,

With gas and water-aye, and "city cops.

And all on monthly payments, recollect;

And while you think a moment, just reflect

There's naught that human effort can attain So REAL as REAL ESTATE, 'tis very plain.

But if you have no wife, then come yourself

FOR CASH, remember, all on homes intent, You get a discount off of ten per cent.

Free passes, maps, and information clear Obtain of JERE JOHNSON, Jr., Auctionses

And get a wife to share your lot and pelf.

And at the prices, lots like these, so near

To City Hall, must double every year Pay no more rents, but bring your wife to-day And bay a charming lot at Rapelje;

And, being in the city, five-cent fare By steam and street car takes you anywhere

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS. A Sealy, Riching, Skin Disease with Endle Suffering Cured by Cuttours

If I had known of the CUTICURA REMEDIES twentyeight years ago it would have saved me $200.00 (two hundred dollars) and an immense amount of suffering.
My disease (Paorissis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drep off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ring-worm psoriasts. &c. I book ... and ... Sarsaparillas over one year and a haif, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors, and no cure. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All used of them was three boxes of CUTICURA. three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200 OU you would have had the money. I looked like the picture in your book of Psoriasis (picture number two, "How to Core Skin Diseases"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all wall. I scratched twenty eight years and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times. Anything more that you want to know write me, or any one who reads this may write to me and I will answer it.
